Darryl Croxton IN Portraits in Black

PORTRAITS IN BLACK is a compilation of the best that has been written by contemporary Black writers. It boasts the rich creative voices of Melvin Van Peebles, Charles Gordone, Langston Hughes, Nikki Giovanni, the late George "Soledad Brother" Jackson, Lorraine Hansberry and many others.

The dynamic material of these extraordinary writers could not be dramatized by a more brilliant and charismatic performer than Darryl Croxton, who has acted on Broadway and Off Broadway in a wide range of roles that have brought him unanimous acclaim from the critics.
